

Please note: Any black square between booths are pillars and those booths will have pipe and drape behind them even though it may look like there are exposed corners. Lunch is not connected to the hall next year.